At its session on the 28th day of December, 2014 the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

The Israeli Opera

in recognition of its extraordinary contribution over three decades to enriching Israeli culture and promoting the classical music art form; its diverse repertoire of world-class productions that showcases Israeli artistic originality and that, under the leadership of Hanna Munitz, has placed Israel firmly on the international operatic map; its commitment to nurturing excellence among new generations of Israeli singers, directors, conductors and designers; its public performances, community projects and tailored educational programs that make opera accessible throughout Israel; and its internationally acclaimed festivals at Masada, Jerusalem and Akko that attract tens of thousands of audience members and promote Israel’s image around the world, by conferring upon it an

HONORARY FELLOWSHIP of Tel Aviv University

Dr. Giora Yaron
