At its session on the 13th day of December, 2015 the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

Boris Mints

in recognition of his prodigious achievements in the academic, business and philanthropic arenas; his respected civic and Jewish leadership in the Russian Federation and Europe; his humanitarian spirit in supporting a range of Jewish, cultural and child welfare causes in Russia and Israel; his warm friendship toward the State of Israel; and his recent visionary creation of the Boris Mints Institute for Strategic Policy Solutions to Global Challenges at Tel Aviv University, which will harness Israeli ingenuity to bring about positive change in the world, by conferring upon him an

HONORARY FELLOWSHIP of Tel Aviv University
